It's a busy weekend on the Lakeshore!

Grand Opening Manitowoc Family Aquatic Center

On Friday, June 4th, the brand new Manitowoc Family Aquatic Center opens at 4 p.m. with a "Towel Cutting Ceremony." After the ceremony the Aquatic Center will be open from 5-7 p.m. for swimming free of charge.

Carp Fest and the 2010 Wisconsin Carp Fishing Championship

June 5th & 6th, Carp Fest and the 2010 Wisconsin Carp Fishing Championship will be held in Two Rivers, which became the official home of the Wisconsin Carp Fishing Championship last year. This year, the Two Rivers Business Association has become the major sponsor and organized the first Carp Fest with free live music & kid's games along with a smelt fry and fish boil – all held at Rogers Street Fishing Village. Come to Carp Town for FREE weekend festivities!

Thunder on the Lakeshore

The Manitowoc Airport is the place for the Thunder on the Lakeshore AIRSHOW this weekend. Gates open at 7 a.m. Saturday morning, with the airshow taking to the air at noon. Saturday night, join the BALLOON GLOW at the AIRPORT for the Happy Schnapps Combo and an old fashioned pig roast. Festivities continue on Sunday with gates opening at 7 a.m., and the airshow at noon. Don't miss it!

Bike & Walk to Work Week (BWTWW) is an event that encourages people to reap the health, monetary, and environmental benefits of biking and walking.

The Challenge is On...This year Sheboygan has challenged Manitowoc to determine which community can track the most miles. So every community member is needed to participate and every participant is needed to track their miles. Not only will it greatly help us gauge participation, it will make you eligible for awards and our city eligible for the title. To log your miles, visit the City of Manitowoc Website: www.manitowoc.org
